All applicants for housing will be screened according to the criteria set forth in this Resident Selection Policy. Management will hire a contractor to run a credit check and criminal background check and register sex offender report on all applicants and it will check court records for evictions or judgment’s against the applicant. The purpose of these checks is to obtain information on the applicant’s past history of meeting financial obligations and future ability to make timely rent payments and to determine if the applicant has a criminal history which makes him/her unacceptable to live at an Eden Housing Property. The Resident Selection Policy is established to comply with the Federal and State Laws and/or Eden Housing Management, Inc. Policy.

Applicants Must Meet the Following Criteria:

- Household annual income must not exceed the program income limits of the property the household is applying for;
- Head of Household, spouse, co-head or sole member MUST be aged 62 or older at the time of application;
- In accordance with the following guideline, the household composition must be appropriate for the apartment size in which the household is applying:

- Past performance in meeting financial obligations, especially rent paying: An applicant receives monthly income less than the amount equal to two and one-half times the rent of the apartment he/she is interested in renting. (While some exclusions apply, this does not apply to HUD/ or HA Vouchers Subsidized Properties);
- Current and prior landlords will be contacted to determine rent paying history, disturbance of neighbors, destruction of property or housekeeping habits which would pose a threat to other residents.
- No Negative landlord reference’s from a former landlord;
- No Unlawful detainers (Evictions);
- No Unpaid judgments, collections, and liens exceeding $5,000 excluding student loans and medical bills;

If the information is not the same, the Property Manager will ask the applicant about the discrepancies. If there is no acceptable explanation and it is clear that the applicant falsified information on the application, the applicant will be rejected/crossed out from the Waiting List and a denial letter will be sent to the applicant;
A household member convicted of drug-related criminal activity for manufacture or production of methamphetamine on the premises of federally assisted housing will not be approved for residency under any circumstances;

A household member currently engaged in use of a drug or if the owner has reasonable cause to believe that a household member’s illegal use of a drug or pattern of illegal use may interfere with the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents will not be approved for residency;

A household member who is subject to lifetime registration requirement under a State Sex Offender Registration Program will not be admitted under any circumstances. The Property Manager will check the names of all adults applying for housing through the sex offender registry in each state where each adult has lived;

A household member who has been involved in drug related criminal activity or violent criminal activity or other criminal and ongoing criminal activity that is current or an indication of repeated criminal behavior will not be approved for residency;

EHMI requires a household to exclude an offending household member that has committed acts that would result in denial of admission to the housing program or to continue to reside in the assisted units;

An applicant’s misrepresentation of any information related to eligibility, allowance, household composition or rent will not be approved for residency.

While other qualifications apply, the above mentioned has been established to reflect a short version of Eden Housing Management Inc. Resident Selection Policy. Eden Housing Management Inc. may conduct additional verifications to determine the eligibility of the entire household.

Being eligible, however, is not an entitlement to housing. Every applicant must meet the Resident Selection Policy. Notice to All Applicants

Options for Applicants with Disabilities or Handicaps

This property is owned by Eden Housing. We provide low rent housing to individuals and families. We are not permitted to discriminate against applicants on the basis of their race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, familial status, disability or handicap. In addition, we have a legal obligation to provide “reasonable accommodation” to applicants if they or any family members have a disability or handicap. Compliance actions may include reasonable accommodation as well as structural modifications to the unit or premises.

A reasonable accommodation is some modification or change that we can make to the policies or procedures that will assist an otherwise eligible applicant with a disability to take advantage of the program. Examples of reasonable accommodation and structural modification include:

- Making alterations to a unit so it could be used by a family member with a wheelchair;
- Installing strobe type flashing light smoke detectors in an apartment for a family with a hearing impaired member;
- Making large type documents or a reader available to a vision impaired applicant during the application process;
- Permitting an outside agency to assist an applicant with a disability to meet the property’s screening criteria.

An applicant that has a family member with a disability must still be able to meet the essential obligations of tenancy. They must be able to pay rent, care for their apartments, report required information to the owner, avoid disturbing neighbors, etc., but there is no requirement that they be able to do these things without assistance.

If you or a member of your household have a disability or handicap and think you might need or want a reasonable accommodation, you may request it at any time in the application process or after admission. This is up to you. If you would prefer not to discuss your situation with management, that is your right.
